Notes From The East

March 3rd, 2017

Greetings Brother,

Plans for the Centennial/Sesquicentennial are pretty much set at this point. We will be having an open house starting at 2 pm. The caterer is lined up, so the meal should be great. We will need to purchase a few things, and some brothers are bringing desserts or salads. We have Challenge coins free for paid members, along with pens. We also have some polos and t-shirts available.

The schedule for the 25th of March is:

12:00 pm- Lodge Brothers to show to help finalize the Temple.

2:00 pm- Open House

3:00 pm- Ceremony consisting of

1. Welcome
2. Opening Presentation (Jobies or DeMolay if available)
3. Public Opening by Milton Lodge Officers
4. Presentation of US Flag by Boy Scouts, and Pledge of Allegiance
5. Introduction of Grand Master and Grand Lodge Officers
6. Rededication/Reconsecration ceremony
7. Comments/History
8. Public Closing by Milton Officers

4:00 pm- Buffet dinner, catered by Famous Dave's

On April 1st, We are running a Gentlemen 101 class for 3 Milton HS young men. Brother Derek Henze is off and running with this, and has secured donation for the event. The class is from 12:00 pm- 3:00 pm at the lodge.

We are having a Ladies of the Lodge night on Saturday May 13th at the Milwaukee Grill in Janesville, we are planning on an 5:00 get together, and 6:00 pm meal. Brothers pay only $25, and their ladies meal is free. Beverages are extra, and the bar downstairs will be open.

Please contact me with questions, or information to update the computer system.

Thank you,

Pat Garvin WM
